Congratulations on 79 Years!

Special Entertainment By:

Bowling Green's Funniest Kids Around

Cole Vaughan

Turner Manley

The 79th Homemaker Annual Meeting will have entertainment by Cole and Turner.

Just a few months ago, Cole Vaughan took the stage at the Capitol Arts Center. Now his comedy routine has gone nationwide. "It feels awesome," Vaughan exclaimed. The Bonnie Hunt Show went looking for a funny kid and after a Google search, found Bowling Green's funniest.

"We're pretty excited," said Amy Vaughan, Cole's mother. "He really has big plans for his future. He definitely thinks he's going to be something famous. He says this is just the first step. "I kept telling jokes and sometimes they didn't even make sense, but everyone just laughed their heads off," Cole said. 12-year-old Turner Manley, who played drum rolls for Cole as a sidekick during the Funniest Kids Around is also made the trip and will appear on the show as well.

"I went to school the other day and my teacher says, 'Cole, your shoes are on the wrong feet!' And I say, 'Well, sorry Ms. Young, but these are the only feet I've got!'"
